IMPORTANT

CANADA - Passport or proof of U.S. citizenship and photo ID required. Minors (under 16) traveling alone or in someone else's custody must present written authorization, signed before a notary, from the parent(s) or guardian. Visas are not required. Canadian immigration officials at ports of entry will issue persons planning to stay longer than 180 days a visitor's record. Anyone with a criminal record (including a DWI charge) should contact the Canadian Embassy or nearest Consulate General before travel. U.S. citizens entering Canada from a third country must have a valid passport. For student or business travel, check with the Canadian Embassy, 501 Pennsylvania Ave., NW, Washington, DC 20001 (202/682-1740) or nearest Consulate General: CA (213/346-2701), MI (313/567-2085), NY (212/596-1700 or 716/858-9501), or WA (206/443-1375). Internet: www.canadianembassy.org

Everyone 18 years of age or older must have a photo ID or driver's license plus a copy of his birth certificate.

If you are younger than 18 years of age you must have a photo ID, a copy of your birth certificate, AND a signed copy of the Authorization slip below signed by both your parents(before a notary). If one parent is accompanying you a signature from the parent left at home is needed, giving their approval that you are with the other parent.
